

Birds in the Field of Mars

(Note: Images are not to scale.)

Anywhere in the Reserve:

Laughing Kookaburra
(Dacelo novaeguineae)

Noisy Miner (Manorina melanocephala)

Rainbow Lorikeet
(Trichoglossus haematodus)

Red Wattlebird (Anthochaera carunculata)

Near Creeks:

Australian White Ibis
(Threskiornis molucca)

Australian Wood Duck (Chenonetta jubata)

Dusky Moorhen (Gallinula tenebrosa)

Little Pied Cormorant (Microcarbo
[previously Phalacrocorax] melanoleucos)

Pacific Black Duck (Anas superciliosa)

Among Sheltered Bushes:

Brown Gerygone (Gerygone mouki)

Brown Thornbill (Acanthiza pusilla)

Eastern Spinebill
(Acanthorhynchus tenuirostris)

Spotted Pardalote (Pardalotus punctatus)

Superb Fairy-wren (Malurus cyaneus)

White-browed Scrubwren
(Sericornis frontalis)

Among Trees:

Australian King Parrot
(Alisterus scapularis)

Australian Magpie (Gymnorhina tibicen)

Crimson Rosella (Platycercus elegans)

Grey Butcherbird (Cracticus torquatus)

Among Trees (continued):

Grey Fantail (Rhipidura albiscapa)

Pied Currawong (Strepera graculina)

Sulphur-crested Cockatoo
(Cacatua galerita)

Tawny Frogmouth (Podargus strigoides)

In Open Grass Areas...

Red-browed Finch (Neochmia temporalis)

Magpie-lark (Peewee)
(Grallina cyanoleuca)

... with a mound built in a shaded spot:

Australian Brush Turkey (Alectura lathami)
– male during breeding season

Compiled for RHHFFPS by members Phillip Ward, Cathy Goswell and Alfred Vincent. We acknowledge Birdlife Australia and Wikimedia Commons for several of the images.

This list is not comprehensive; other birds are sometimes seen.
For more information and to identify birdcalls, please ask at the Visitor Centre.